

Code of Conduct & Compliance

Ethics, professional behavior, anti-harassment, and DEI

Category: Conduct

1. Introduction and Purpose

This document outlines expected employee conduct, ethical standards, and compliance obligations. All employees are required to read, understand, and comply with these policies.

- Applies to all full-time, part-time, and contract employees unless otherwise stated.
- Policies may be updated from time to time; employees will be notified of material changes.
- In case of conflict with local labor law, local law takes precedence.

2. Code of Conduct

Employees are expected to act with integrity, professionalism, and respect in all interactions with colleagues, clients, partners, and the public.

2.1 Professional Behavior

- Treat all colleagues, clients, and visitors with courtesy and respect.
- Dress appropriately for your role and work environment.
- Avoid conflicts of interest; disclose any personal or financial interest that may influence business decisions.
- Do not use company resources, time, or position for personal gain outside authorized activities.
- Alcohol and illegal substances are prohibited on company premises and during work hours.

2.2 Use of Company Property

Company equipment must be used primarily for business purposes. Employees are responsible for the care and security of any equipment issued to them.

2.3 Gifts and Anti-Bribery

Employees must not offer, give, solicit, or accept bribes, kickbacks, or improper gifts in connection with company business.

3. Anti-Harassment and Anti-Discrimination Policy

The company maintains a zero-tolerance policy toward harassment, discrimination, and retaliation of any kind.

3.1 Prohibited Conduct

Harassment or discrimination based on race, color, religion, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, or any other legally protected characteristic is strictly prohibited.

3.2 Reporting Procedure

Employees who experience or witness harassment or discrimination should report it to their manager, HR, or the company's confidential reporting channel.

3.3 Non-Retaliation

Retaliation against any employee for reporting a concern in good faith is strictly prohibited and treated as a serious policy violation.

4. Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

The company is committed to building a diverse, equitable, and inclusive workplace where all employees can do their best work.

- Hiring, promotion, and compensation decisions are based on merit and performance.
- Employees are encouraged to voice ideas and concerns openly.
- Reasonable accommodations are provided for employees with disabilities.
- DEI practices are reviewed periodically with employee feedback welcomed.

End of document. Template content — replace with your organization's actual policy.