

Communications & Branding Policy

Social media, public statements, and acknowledgement

Category: Communications

1. Social Media and External Communications Policy

1.1 Personal Social Media Use

Employees are free to participate in social media in a personal capacity but should not disclose confidential company information or speak on behalf of the company without authorization.

1.2 Media and Public Statements

Only designated spokespeople are authorized to make public statements or respond to press inquiries. Employees who receive media inquiries should redirect them to the communications team.

1.3 Use of Company Branding

Company logos and trademarks may not be used in personal projects or external communications without written approval from Marketing or Legal.

2. Employee Acknowledgement

By continuing employment with the company, employees acknowledge that they have received, read, and understood the company's policies and agree to comply with them.

2.1 Questions and Clarifications

Any questions about policy, or requests for clarification on how a policy applies to a specific situation, should be directed to Human Resources.

2.2 Policy Updates

Company policy is reviewed periodically and may be updated to reflect changes in law or business needs. The most current version is always available through the internal HR portal.

End of document. Template content — replace with your organization's actual policy.